IDENTITY

+ that little extra that makes all the difference

The world is becoming increasingly global, we all receive impressions from many different directions, and thus the need for giving your enterprise a unique profile and creating an identity and a sense of affiliation, both internally and externally, is becoming increasingly important.

Profile clothing is one of the most efficient means of an enterprise to send a specific and uniform signal to the outside world. At the same time profile clothing strengthens employees' loyalty and their pride of being part of the team.

With the new ID collection you get a little more of all the good stuff. Plus quality. Plus details. Plus wearability. Plus choice. In short: Plus attention at every occasion.

Why not let ID give your enterprise an extra plus on the image account? Start by finding inspiration on the following pages...

+innovation

For more than 25 years we have enjoyed a high status in the market for profile clothing. This is, among other things, thanks to our constant focus on innovation.

From the outset it has been our objective not only to become known for carrying a wide range of goods in several qualities and designs. Our objective is also to be the preferred sparring partner among our customers – irrespective of the customers' individual needs.

The way we see it, quality sparring is a vital factor when creating an innovative environment for the parties of a good deal. We are proud of having created such an environment through our values which include openness, honesty and responsibility.

+individual solutions

If no product in this catalogue matches your needs, there is still every reason to look our way. In addition to our permanent ID-Line collection of strong profile clothing we are able to deliver special productions tailored to your wishes. Your imagination is almost the only limiting factor.

Does your product feature a particular colour or a vital design detail? We will deliver – and at a price that will allow you to design unique solutions for a wide range of special events, e.g. campaigns, fairs, kick-off events, company days, customer events, etc.

And it goes without saying that you can have a truly unique solution developed and manufactured for your enterprise's general profile collection.

We will be happy to assist you from the beginning to the end – from design to final delivery.
